LEVI MYERS KILLED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT Aged Lincoln Farmer Thrown From Buggy When Horse Scared At Collision With Another Rig

The entire community was inexpressibly shocked by a runaway accident Sunday afternoon as a result of which the aged Mr. Levi Myers, one of the best known of the older citizens of the county, died at the home of his son, Mat Myers, on the Hustonville pike Tuesday. Mrs. Myers was badly bruised up when she was also thrown from the buggy in which the couple were riding, but it is not believed that her injuries will prove fatal, though quite serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers were returning from a visit to relatives in the West End, about three o'clock Sunday afternoon and it was near the pike tunnel under the Queen & President tracks on the Hustonville road that the dreadful affair occurred. Mr. Jake Myers, son of the deceased, was driving in front of his father and mother, when a rig, being driven by several young people of the West End, passed him. It is believed that the occupants of this vehicle did not see the buggy of the elder Mr. and Mrs. Myers, for, thus behind that of Jake Myers, for, thus turned into the roadway again after passing the first rig, and crashed full into the horse and vehicle being driven by the couple behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers were driving a young horse, which instantly bolted, and breasting the cross bar, overturned the buggy and hurled the occupants to the ground. Mr. Myers is believed to have been dragged for some distance as the horse ran. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and both he and Mrs. Myers were immediately taken to their home and physicians summoned.

An examination showed that several of Mr. Myers' ribs were broken, one of them puncturing a lung; and he was otherwise seriously injured. Mr. Myers was 87 years of age and had little strength to conduct such serious injuries. After lingering until Tuesday, the Great Physician Himself took charge of his case and he passed over the river, freed from all suffering and woe.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of his son, Mr. Mat Myers, on Wednesday morning and were attended by a large number of friends and loved ones, for he was one of the best known farmers in the West End of the county and generally esteemed and beloved. The services were short and impressive, conducted by Rev. J. J. Dickey, of the Methodist church.

A Friend's Tribute.

Lee E. Myers was born in Washington county, Ky., August 6th 1827. In early life he moved to Casey county where he married Miss Martha Brown Jan. 30, 1861. To them were born seven children who are all living as follows: Mrs. Annie E. Wither, Mrs. James Messer, Wm. E. Myers and Mat L. Myers, of Lincoln county, Mrs. James Myers, of Casey county, Sidney J. Myers, of Hancock, Polaski county and J. J. Myers of Harland.

In 1893 Mr. Myers removed to Lincoln county where he resided until his death which occurred Aug. 29th 1917. Mr. Myers was a man of high principle. His word was as good as his bond. He enjoyed the confidence of his neighbors in a high degree. He was a good neighbor, a good citizen, an exceedingly kind husband, and father. His children were his wealth. For them he lived and labored. He took great pains to train them the habits of industry, integrity, to honesty, and neighborliness. Nor was his labor in vain. Their devotion to him was no less than his to them.

While Mr. Myers was not a professed Christian yet he had a profound respect for Christianity and supported the institutions of the church. He was hospitable and benevolent. In him the needy always found a friend. For several winters the grip paralyzed his life, but his remarkable vitality, conquered the disease and he lingered still to bless his children and friends.

Today we mingle our tears with that of those that loved him dearest and will miss him most. Especially do we sympathize with her who traveled with him so many years, over life's weary way and is now left to go alone, the remainder of the way. To those that mourn we offer the consolation of our holy religion. To his seven children, his 20 grand children and his three great grand children he has left a heritage of a good name and an honorable life.

BIG BARN BURNS. And Will McCormack's Loss Is About $2,800 With No Insurance

The large barn on the farm of Will McCormack, in the McCormack's church neighborhood burned down at midnight Monday night. The barn contained a large quantity of hay and was a total loss. The loss will amount to about $2,800 which hits Mr. McCormack pretty hard, as he had no insurance on either the barn or its contents.

It is not known how the fire originated. The alarm was given in town when the great blaze was seen to the west, and they started made a run with the hose reel, but soon found the fire was too far in the country for any assistance to be given.

You are always safe from any loss by fire when you have insurance with J. H. Wearen, the Insurance Man, of Stanford.

Judge E. L. O'Rear, candidate for Governor, and Col. Tarlton, candidate for railroad commissioner, according to a Danville gentleman, attended the Harrodsburg Colored Fair Thursday afternoon and Judge O'Rear spoke to those present after being introduced by Joe Young, editor and one of the right-hand hoppers of Auditor Frank P. James. Judge O'Rear and Col. Tarlton did not let their presence be known to the white republicans, judging by outside indications, but slipped in and out, driving from Harrodsburg and returning to that point to take the train. Our informant states that after Judge O'Rear had spoken some time all the negro voters except 19 had left the grandstand and many of them were riding on the Flying Dutchman. The actual count was made. Of the nineteen, six were old men and had fallen asleep under the soothing words of the candidate. The appearance of Judge O'Rear and Col. Tarlton at the fair under the conditions has caused wide comment.

LIBERTY FAIR SATURDAY

SPLENDID SESSION OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BODY Lincoln County Association Holds Great Meeting Here—Fine Reports and Papers Read

The Lincoln county Sunday school association convened in the Christian church in Stanford at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, the 28th. A fine audience greeted the speakers of the evening and the exercises were thrillingly interesting. Rev. D. M. Walker, the county president, presided. The county secretary, Mrs. J. J. Dickey had made strenuous efforts to awaken the interest and enlist the cooperation of the schools of the county. Circular letters were mailed to every superintendent in the county, urging the sending of delegates and reports to the meeting; also the contributions asked for the county, state and international work, of three cents for each pupil and 15 cents for each officer and teacher. The response to these calls was gratifying, compared with former years, but very far below the standard.

The program for the Tuesday evening session was carried out as follows: opening address by the president; solo by Miss Mary Morrison Matheys; story of the San Francisco International convention told by Miss Pauline Hocker. Miss Hocker gave a vivid account of the trip from Louisville to San Francisco of the Kentucky delegation of forty; of the things they saw and did on the way. Her account of the stop-over Sunday in Salt Lake City was especially interesting. Arriving at San Francisco, the party was quartered in a splendid hotel, all arranged in advance. The convention met in a great building on most a square. The fact was revealed at the convention that unprecedented progress in Sunday school work had been made in the last three years. There was large increase everywhere. During the convention there was a march of 10,000 men through the city over four miles of streets, each man having an open Bible in his hand, loaned to them by the thousands. Banners, mottoes and bands of music were abundant in the procession. The men sang as they marched. San Francisco was never before so stirred by anything religious. There are 11 heathen temples in San Francisco.

Miss Hocker spoke for about 45 minutes and held her audience in enraptured attention.

The program Wednesday was full of good things. After devotional services conducted by J. C. McClary committees were appointed on future work; time and place of next meeting, nominations and resolutions. Graded lessons were discussed by Miss Dolly McDoberts.

Miss Margaret Hocker and Mrs. W. T. Tucker. How to make the Opening and Closing Exercises interesting was given by J. C. McClary and W. J. Vaughn. Rev. P. L. Bruce treated the subject very ably. Ways of Awakening and Maintaining Interest in Bible Study. Mr. Vaughn took up the subject Some Adolescent Difficulties. How to Overcome them. He said 52 out of every 100 boys are physical wrecks by the time they are 16 years old; hungry all the time wants to sleep 16 hours a day; he is having a physical struggle. The boy becomes bashful; the girl bold and daring; awakening year 13, depression 14, second awakening at 16; rarely any conversions at 20 to 21; teachers' chance from 13 to 19. In the United States 75 per cent of Sunday school scholars are lost to the church in five out of every 100. The whole problem of the church is saving these in the teen age.

At noon an elegant luncheon was served in the lecture room of the Christian church by Mrs. J. B. Sartain and her committee, furnished by the ladies of Stanford.

In the afternoon P. M. McRoberts opened the discussion on how to Secure the Attendance of the Children of the Sunday School at the Church Service. He put the responsibility on the parents, and referred to the good old times when father, mother and children occupied the same pew at the church every Sunday morning. If parents would take the same interest and exercise the same authority in having their children at Sunday school and church, the problem would be solved.

Rev. D. M. Walker, the president, gave a strong talk on Teaching Missions in the Sunday School. Mr. Vaughn gave an instance of a lady whose Sunday school class of girls was so influenced by her teaching that nearly half were led to be missionaries. Rev. J. J. Dickey took as the topic How to Train Our Teachers and Officers. He said the first teacher-training class known was organized and taught by Rev. J. H. Vincent, in Joliet, Ill., in 1857. Dr. Vincent, now Bishop Vincent, made and passed the first uniform lessons in the Sunday school. He was the founder of the great Chautauques. Where teachers training classes can not be had, let the teacher purchase books on teacher training and master them. People learn to teach as they learn other things, little by little, bunglingly and awkward at first. All are successful by hard work. Time must be given to training, as to every important work; unless the teacher is willing to study, he will never succeed.

Perhaps the most startling address made was by W. J. Vaughn, the Bible in the Public Schools. He said in Germany there were three homicides to every million of population annually; in England 10; in Canada 12; in France 13 1-2; in Spain 52; in the United States 129. In all these countries the Bible was taught in the public schools except in the United States. He attributed the difference in these statistics to this fact. He said we have no Bible conscience and never will have until the Bible is taught in our public schools. He said divided Protestantism is to blame for the exclusion of the Bible from our schools.

P. M. McRoberts was elected president and Miss Pauline Hocker secretary-treasurer for next year. Rev. Walker and Mrs. Dickey declining to stand for re-election.

It was a great convention. Mr. Vaughn pronounced it one of the best he had ever attended. The music furnished by the church choir of Stanford and a children's choir, directed by Mrs. J. G. Carpenter and Miss Josephine Carpenter, who presided at the organ, was fine and added much to the interest of the occasion. To Rev. Walker and Mrs. Dickey, the outgoing officers, all say "Well done, good and faithful servants."

The report of the secretary-treasurer will appear in next issue, also the other county officers.

Wednesday night, the new President, Mr. McRoberts presided. He gave a fine inaugural address, pledging fidelity and asking the co-operation of all the schools of the county. Mr. V. unequivocally gave the word.

Mr. Vaughn occupied the platform at the night session and gave marvellous accounts of the results of Sunday school work in certain counties in the mountains of Kentucky.

SPLENDID INSTITUTE Being Held Here This Week By Lincoln County Teachers.

The Lincoln county teachers' institute is being held in the graded school building this week with Profs. Ireland and Robinson as instructors.

Eighty five teachers have been enrolled and most of them have been prompt and regular in attendance and seem to be doing everything possible to make this the most interesting institute ever held in Stanford.

The institute was called to order by Prof. Ireland, Monday and after devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Bruce, "the purpose of the institute" were discussed by Prof. J. W. Ireland, and Hon. K. S. Alcorn, delivered a splendid address.

Monday afternoon was spent in discussing "professional training," "the ideal teacher," and "the sturdy of children." Miss Kate Hoyle, Prof. Ireland, Mr. Alcorn and Virgil McMullin, handled these subjects in a very able manner. The teachers also enjoyed the great pleasure of listening to Mr. Wm. Vancey Erwin, recite some of his original poems namely:

"The shades of Daniel Boone," "Kenucky's Best" and "The Big Strick." Mrs. Erwin is also with him as sales woman for his worthy poems.

Tuesday morning Rev. J. J. Dickey of the M. E. church was kind enough to come up to the institute and give us a nice little talk on the use of the Bible in the public schools. Miss Claudia Eaton discussed "The transition of the student into the teacher."

The new course of study sent out by the state board of education was clearly explained by Prof. Ireland.

Mr. Harmon representing the Business University of Bowling Green, made an excellent practical talk on education and the benefits derived from a commercial course.

Prof. Harmon is a man of charming personality and has contributed much to the life of the institute by his efficient talks on spelling, reading and penmanship. The subject of reading, spelling writing, arithmetic and grammar have been explained by the members of the institute in a way that speaks for itself as to their qualification to teach them.

Mr. Harris, of Kentucky Children's Home Society also addressed the teachers. Tuesday, telling them of the conditions of the Kentucky Children's Home and Dec. 15th was set aside by the teachers as children's home day.

Mr. Vaughn the state Sunday school representative addressed the institute and gave the teachers an invitation to attend the Sunday school convention being held at the Christian church this week.

Some other teachers who spoke before the institute are Cyrus Johnson, Miss Lois Willis, Miss Annie McKinney, Mrs. Phillips, Prof. Robinson, Miss Hopper and Mr. Wyatt.

Clumch returned from Waynesburg Sunday and filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church.

Revs. Stratton and Peyton, a couple of Anderson county divines are conducting a holiness meeting at the Lutheran schoolhouse. These two preachers are somewhat divided as to church relationship. Peyton claims John Wesley, the founder Campbell while the Rev. Stratton claims John Wesley. The founder of Methodism, at his authority on the subject of holiness and took up each others statements with a hearty Amen. They appear to be in dead earnest though they have not been able to convert anyone to their sanctification ideas as yet.

There are from 50 to 75 wagons loaded with staves, lumber and other timber that pass through here daily. This makes business lively here and especially at Yosemite where the merchants deal in spoked and cross-ties.

PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENS NEXT MONDAY.

Medal to be Offered in The Musical Department—Our School's Advantages.

On Monday September the 4th the Stanford schools will open. This is the beginning of the seventh year under the present management. The course of study has been enriched from year to year; new departments have been added until the facilities for thorough work are second to none in cities of like class. It may be well to call to mind that pupils from the country who hold certificates from county board of examiners will be admitted free of charge 19 to 22 of these pupils were in attendance last year and more are expected this year.

The school grows bigger and better with each succeeding year. Pupils who leave this school to attend higher institutions of learning are making enviable records. All who wish a thorough training for their children may well send here.

The music department will give a medal this year to the pupil who accomplishes the most in the coming school year. This medal is now on display in the window at W. H. Mueller's. Let everyone in Lincoln County who feels an interest in the educational uplift of the county rally to the support of the county high schools.

All who can are invited to attend the opening day. Something of interest to all parents will be discussed. With gratitude for past co-operation and hope for the future, we are truly,

A Great Advantage to Working Men.

J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., So. Louisville, O., says: "For five years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley's Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business expressmen, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. JUDGE O'REAR'S INSINCERITY.

Editor Jim Richardson, of the Glasgow Times, who above all of the country editors can cut closer to the bone than any in getting to the meat of a subject, has this to say of Judge O'Rear's "sincerity."

The burden of Judge O'Rear's song is the lack of "sincerity" on the part of the Democrats. He condemns them for putting a "county unit" plank into their platform, because he does not believe they were "sincere" when they did it. The popular definition of the word "sincere" is to be in earnest. It does not lie in Judge O'Rear's mouth to truthfully say that, when a majority of the Democratic delegates at the Louisville convention voted to commit their party to the extension of local option, so that the people of every county in the state should settle that vexed problem for themselves they were not entirely "sincere," and moved to take that course in all sincerity of purpose. How easy it would have been for them to have taken the broader road, where a big campaign fund beckoned aid to which some distinguished leaders attempted to lure them. Had they been lacking in "sincerity" they would not have cast their lot with the forces of temperance, but would have harkened to the call of the beer and whisky trust. The opportunity for going astray was not wanting. Weaker men than Gov. McCreary and his associates would have fallen by the wayside. They deserve infinite credit for doing their duty resolutely and "sincerely," despite Judge O'Rear's sneering condemnation.

By the way, what license has the Republican nominee to question the "sincerity" of other men, when his political utterances are as mottled as a snake and as tortuous as its track pursued in shadow and in darkness? At Lexington he broadly hinted that an investigation would reveal the scandal that taints Bradley's title as United States Senator. As the beneficiary of Bradley's favor, and eager to gain his support, he stood in the Louisville convention and with uplifted hands, proclaimed that pet of the beer and whisky trust as "the greatest living Kentuckian, without a stain upon his title." Does any sane man believe that Judge O'Rear was "sincere" when that flood of revolting eloquence spewed from his lips? If he has the intelligence to retain his place on the appellate bench and sufficient information to entitle him to aspire to the governorship, Judge O'Rear must know that Bradley swam to the senatorship through an ocean of scandals; that his depths were marked by bouys of beer kegs and whisky barrels each weighted with a corruption fund, that its surface was greasy with ooze and slime the exudings of the dirty lobby that hounded Beckham to defeat.

Even on his high place on the bench, swathed in the ermine of purity, he must have heard the yelps of joy when treacherous Democrats at their bidding, voted Bradley into the senate. Although blind as a bat, and deaf as a post, he could not but have seen this saturnalia of corruption, and have heard its echoes, and have inhaled its asphyxiating odors. And yet, this self-anointed leader, proclaiming himself purer than all others, sits in judgment on his fellow men and questions their "sincerity." When evidences of fraud and malice and wrong were piled mountain high yet he walked through it and about it daily and neither saw, nor heard nor smelled.

If Judge O'Rear was sincere himself, he would not trade his reputation for intelligence and back-bone for such a mess of pottage as Bradley's support, but, rising to the full heights of his manhood, would denounce him for what he is—the commonplace beneficiary of the conspiracies and corruption of the whisky people, whom Judge O'Rear so affects to despise.

Every turn of the wheel of fate, shows Judge O'Rear more and more in the light of an insincere politician rather than as a statesman.

Frank B. Russell, a beer stove manufacturer and a close friend of Judge O'Rear has been named as the head of the Republican campaign committee in Louisville.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

At Installation of Rev. Will Hopper in Pulaski Pastorates.

Rev. William H. Hopper, was formally installed as pastor of the Burnside and Pisgah Presbyterian church in Pulaski county last week. The Somerset Journal tells of the impressive ceremonies thus:

"The Pisgah Church has a history of which it is proud, as it is noted for men and women of piety and strong Christian character, but now with quickened zeal and new courage they look to the future with renewed hope."

The Commission of Transylvania Presbytery appointed to install the new pastor consisted of Rev. J. E. Pack, of Somerset, who presided at the morning service at Pisgah and preached the sermon; Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., of Hanville, Ky., who charged the pastor, and Elder James Denton, of Somerset, who charged the people. Rev. C. R. Blain of Hustonville, J. H. Hopper, of Perryville, Ky., Elders O. B. Vaughan and C. P. Johnson.

A congregation that filled the house, was present to witness the impressive service when most serious vows were taken, which bind pastor and people, to work for the glory of God and the good of men. Rev. Mr. Hopper has supplied his church for the past three years while a student in the Theological Seminary.

The call for the Pisgah church was extended him before his graduation, last May, so he enters upon his first pastorate among a people whom he already knows and loves and to whom he is glad to minister in the days to come.

The second of the two events occurred in the evening at the Presbyterian church at Burnside of which Rev. Hopper was also installed pastor. The services began with music by choir under the leadership of Mrs. O. P. Johnson, organist. Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., of Danville, Ky., presided and charged the people. Rev. C. R. Blain charged the pastor. A special invitation Rev. A. A. Higgins, a relative of the pastor, friend of the congregation and a member of the Louisville Presbytery, preached the sermon. Other members of the Commission were Rev. J. E. Park, Rev. J. H. Hopper, Elders James Denton, C. P. Johnson and O. B. Vaughan. The exercises conducted by these men were most solemn and impressive and were appreciated by the large congregation.

As the new pastor finished his course of training for the ministry last May this church, with the Pisgah Presbyterian church, this is his first pastorate and he enters the work with an evident strong determination and faith in God to serve Him.

A Reader Cures His Constipation—Try it Free

Simple way for any family to retain the good health of all its members

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels has looked the whole field over, has practiced the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the best claim to attention from constipated people.

Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and with

McKINNEY.

Mr. W. Hicks from Palomoth is here instructing our band boys for a few days. Mr. Hicks comes to us well recommended as a band instructor and our boys are to be commended on securing such an able man to instruct them. Mr. Hicks has the Palomoth band and several other bands in his charge and they are having splendid results. Our boys deserve all the help and good wishes of our town and we want to see them make good.

Your correspondent made a mistake last week in saying that W. J. Montgomery had purchased the property from Mr. Williams. We learned later that they did not trade.

Quite a few from here attended the Somerset fair. Among those who went were Mrs. Claude Singleton, Misses Alice Gooch, Ruth Tanner, Mary and Lena Beck, Catherine Murphy, Messrs Herman Gann, and several others.

Mr. Walter Goode and wife of Cincinnati are visiting Mrs. Goode's parents Mrs. Kate Coffey for a few days.

Will Hayton of Erlanger is visiting his mother here for a few days. Dr. Smith from Morrow, Ga., who has been visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gooch, returned to his home last week. Dr. Smith has a good practice in Morrow and is a very popular physician in his town.

Mrs. W. A. McKinney was quite sick last week but we are glad to state that she is much improved at this writing.

The Jumbo Camp Meeting is in progress at this writing and will continue for nine days. There will be three services a day and a large crowd is expected. It is only a four mile drive from town.

Brother Gabbart preached two very interesting sermons to a good crowd at the Christian church last Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Coffey is visiting her daughter Mrs. Martin of Turnersville.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, cures inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter. Free. All correspondence strictly private and absolutely confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page Illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers, in handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

LOOK FOR IT.

Many a Stanford Reader Will Be Interested.

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, it is surprising that they wonder if the statements are true; but when they read of cures right here at home, positive proof is within their reach, for close investigation is an easy matter. Read Stanford endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Dawson Barnett, Rowland St., Stanford, Ky., says: "Some time ago I had a severe fall and this, together with the jarring to which I am subject in my work, brought on kidney trouble. For several days I could hardly get about on account of the pains in my back. I also noticed that the passages of kidney secretions were very irregular, especially at night. I decided to cure this trouble before it became chronic and as I knew that Doan's Kidney Pills were good for such complaints, I procured a box at Shugars and Turner's drug store. Before I had finished the contents, I was entirely cured and I have had no kidney trouble since."

Hanna's Green Seal "The Made-to-Wear Paint"

If you expect to do any painting, you are interested—you should be—in the quality of the paint to be used. In any given job of painting, labor represents practically two-thirds, material one-third the cost.

It stands to reason that with so much expense in labor, the enduring quality of the paint is all important.

Why have the painting done unless the protection and durability of the job is sought? How is one to determine the true value and obtain paint that may be depended upon for durability?

HANNA'S GREEN SEAL PAINT IS NOT A SECRET. This paint has the printed formula on every package.

The makers have confidence and take pride in the quality and tell the public the composition of the paint.
